

Energy Success Stories

1. What three themes do these stories have in common?

2. Are you, or could you be, like one of the people in these stories? Explain.

3. In what ways could success stories like these affect your family and community?

4. How could our future be shaped by people and organizations like these?

